

Call for submissions terms and conditions

By submitting an abstract/poster you agree to the following terms and conditions:

- Submissions must be the original work of the submitting author(s), must not have been previously published and must not be under consideration by another publication or conference.
- All abstract/poster proposals must meet the format requirements specified by the Conference Committee.
- The Conference Committee reserves the right to refuse material that does not meet requirements or is deemed inappropriate in either content or format.
- Required documents must be submitted online. Abstracts, bio notes and papers will not be accepted in hard copy format or by fax.
- Abstract/poster acceptances will be advised from September - November 2019 and final abstract/posters are due February 2020.
- Details of the required format for final abstracts/papers will be sent to presenters with notification of abstract/paper acceptance.
- Accepted authors must pay and register for the Conference by Thursday 7 November 2019. Failure to register will result in the abstract/paper being withdrawn.
- The Conference Committee reserve the right to publish all submitted abstracts/papers via conference proceedings/conference app or other channels.
- For all accepted presentations (excludes posters), the abstract will appear in the ICCP2020 app.
- You give the Australian Psychological Society (APS) permission to publish a PDF of your slides on the ICCP2020 website. If you require modifications to your slides i.e. don't want particular slides published, it is your responsibility to email APS and advise of the changes you would like to make.
- If you are accepted for a presentation or poster your name, job title, organisation name, photo and biography will be included in the conference app.
- Submission of an abstract/poster will be regarded as acceptance of these conditions.
- Registration: Accepted abstracts/posters must confirm their acceptance by purchasing a speaker registration to attend the conference.
